Personality Evaluation (slide 94)

1. Where do you get your energy?

I'm generally a person who enjoys their own space, I usually recharge through quiet time and reflection, but I also become energized by meaningful interactions with people.

2. How do you take in information?

I focus on facts, logic, and practicality. I like to understand how things work and prefer structured, detailed information. I don't like vagueness as it leaves room for confusion. I'm also open to new ideas once I've grasped the basics.

3. How do you make your decisions?

I find myself to be very indecisive, so I use logic and careful analysis but also consider fairness and long-term impact. I usually weight the pros and cons of a situation.

4. How do you approach life?

I'm goal-driven and organized. I like to plan ahead, stay focused, and follow through. I work best with clear timelines and always aim for progress.
